

Acknowledgements

The Children's Campaign, Inc. would like to acknowledge numerous individuals for their help in the compilation of our work. While the words and views expressed here are solely of Children's Campaign, Inc., they reflect understanding of current policy and data that could only be accomplished with the significant assistance of partners and friends.

Members of the Children's Campaign Platform Committee played a central role by providing formal feedback and updates. Others provided vital professional services at a deep discount or without any compensation whatsoever. We thank them all sincerely.
